

Location: University of California Berkeley
470 Stephens Hall

Friday May 10, 2013 (afternoon)

3:15 pm to 3:30 pm

Welcome Address:

Introduction: Prof. Frank W. Stahnisch (Calgary/Berkeley),
Angelo Caglioti (Berkeley) and Kelsey Lucyk (Calgary)

3:30 pm to 5 pm

First Panel: History of Psychiatry and Mental Health

Chair: Prof. Peter Sahlins (Berkeley)

Alysia Han (UCSF):

“Treating the ‘Whole Child’: The Development of Child Psychiatry at Johns Hopkins, 1930-1943”

Kevin Bass (Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia):

“DSM-V: A Brief History of Tradition and Critique”

Ramsha Almas (Calgary):

“The Role of Functional Neuroimaging and Genetic Techniques in the Evolving Definitions and Diagnostics of Asperger’s Syndrome and Autism (a Historical Analysis)”

Discussion

5 pm to 5:30 pm

Coffee Break

5:30 to 7 pm

Chair: Frank W. Stahnisch

Keynote Lecture: Prof. Dorothy Porter (San Francisco)

“Creative Disability and the Shaking Palsy: Approaching a History of Parkinson’s Disease”

Discussion

8 pm to 10:30 pm

Evening Dinner at Free House, 2700 Bancroft Way, Berkeley
(conf. participants – on own expenses)

Saturday May 11th, 2013 (morning)

9 am to 9:45 am

Chair: Frank W. Stahnisch

Featured Lecture: Prof. Peter Sahlins (Berkeley)

“The Animal Question in the First Xenotransfusions in France, 1667-1668”

Discussion

9:45 to 10:15 am

Coffee Break

10:15 am to 11:45 am

Second Panel: Health, Medicine and the State in Latin America in the 20th Century

Chair: Chris F. Jones (Berkeley)

Nicole Pacino (UC Santa Barbara):

“Transforming ‘Dangerous Practices: Training Midwives for the Good of the Nation in Post-Revolutionary Bolivia”

Hanni Jalil (UC Santa Barbara):

“Agendas of Liberal Redemption, Modernization and Public Health in 1930s and 40s Colombia”

Jethro Hernandez-Berrones (UC Santa Barbara):

“The ‘Mania Medical Flora that Corrodes the Nation’: Homeopathic Medical Practice and its (Mis)Representations in Mexico, 1895-1943”

Discussion

11:45 am to 1:30 pm

Lunch at Le Regal, 2126 Center Street, Berkeley
(conference participants – on own expenses)

Saturday May 11th, 2013 (afternoon)

1:30 to 2:30 pm

Third Panel: History of Public Health

Chair: Angelo Caglioti (Berkeley)

Kelsey Lucyk (Calgary):

“Population Mental Health and Resource-Based Communities: The Case of Kitimat, British Columbia, 1953-1982”

Erna Kurbegović (Calgary):

“School Medical Inspections in Winnipeg, 1900-1912”

2:30 to 3 pm

Coffee Break

3 to 4:30 pm

Fourth Panel: History of Biopolitics

Chair: Massimo Mazzotti

Angelo Caglioti (Berkeley):

“Measuring ‘Civilization’ – Social Observation and Alfredo Niceforo’s Trajectory (1897-1960)”

Emily Seitz (Pennsylvania State University):

“Diseased Fertility: The Biopolitics of Birth Control Research”

Thomas Bryant (Berlin):

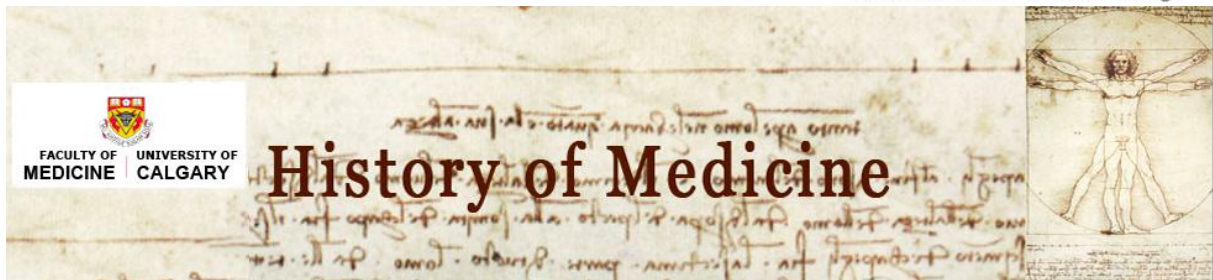

“Sterilization between Medical Indication and Social Engineering – Sexological Aspects of a German Debate in the Run-Up to National Socialism”

4:30 to 5 pm

Final Group Discussion

(Frank W. Stahnisch, Angelo Caglioti and Kelsey Lucyk)

With the close collaboration and special thanks to:

Suggested accommodation near UC Berkeley campus:

Bancroft Hotel (see map)
2680 Bancroft Way, Berkeley
510/549-1000, 800/549-1002
www.bancrofthotel.com

Downtown Berkeley Inn (see map)
2001 Bancroft Way, Berkeley
510/843-4043
downtownberkeleyinn.com

The Faculty Club (see campus map)
On campus
510/540-5678
berkeleyfacultyclub.com/

Hotel Durant (see map)
2600 Durant Avenue, Berkeley
510/845-8981
800/2-DURANT (800/238-7268)
www.hoteldurant.com

Rose Garden Inn (see map)
2740 Telegraph Avenue, Berkeley
510/549-2145, 800/992-9005
www.rosegardeninn.com